

HEALTHCARE BUSINESS PROCESS MANAGEMENT SERVICE

Mangalam offers comprehensive, outsourced, remote Medical Revenue Cycle Management (RCM) Services. With over 20 years of experience in the Business Process Management, Mangalam possesses extensive and robust capabilities that support Medical Practice, Hospitals, Pharmacies and Laboratories to streamline and enhance their Medical Coding, Billing, and Collection services.

Through our services, you benefit from reduced staffing and cost overheads, enhanced quality of the billing process, increase in collections, reduction in rejections and unreimbursed claims among other things.

We leverage people, processes and information technology to maximize our client's financial and operational performance, patient's experience and free up your valuable time being used in backend processes.

Revenue Cycle Management Services

- Insurance Eligibility Verification
- Medical Coding
- Charge Entry
- Claim Transmission
- Accounts Receivable Follow-up
- Payment Posting
- Denial Management
- Revenue Reports

Expertise in Medical Practice Management Softwares

Our skilled medical billing and collection staff possesses considerable expertise in the use of a wide software's. As we have experience of working with many Medical Practice Management software's, you get additional advantage of our consultancy of choosing the best software in case the present software is not meeting your requirements.

We also offer host of other value-added services like Insurance/Clearinghouse Credentialing, Medical Transcription, Patient Engagement, Fax & Document Management, Document Indexing, Authorization Services.

End-to-End Differentiating Advantage

We have capability to take up all your administrative and back-office tasks which can be done through the outsourcing and remotely. This includes Transcription, billing, medical record indexing, medical data entry, medical customer service, receivables management, claims processing and more, your business will get a competitive edge in the dynamic business landscape. The time zone advantage gained by outsourcing to our delivery centres that operate 24x7 will enable your business to accelerate the process of reimbursement.